Remarks

This fantastic villa, located directly on its own private beach, designed by the well-known Curaçao architect Henk Bolivar, really leaves nothing to be desired! Via an impressive, park-like driveway, flanked by mature palm trees, you enter the 'forecourt' of the villa, with two double garages and the inviting entrance gate, which you reach via a bridge over a pond with koi carp.

The U-shaped villa consists of a main building and two wings that together enclose a patio facing the sea and the beach. In the main building are the spacious kitchen with all amenities and the adjoining living room and dining room, a library / home office and a large multifunctional (reception) room. The living room in turn is adjacent to a beautiful porch. By opening the sliding door in its entirety, a continuous space is created, so that inside and outside merge smoothly. The porch then connects to the aforementioned patio.

The sleeping quarters are located in the two wings, with the very luxurious master bedroom in one wing with a spacious bathroom en suite and two large dressing rooms with walk-in wardrobes. In the other wings there are a further four bedrooms, each with its own bathroom and wardrobe.

From the patio you reach a beautiful terrace covered with a large palapa. Next to it is a kidney-shaped infinity pool. Here you can enjoy a wonderful breeze and the fascinating sunset.

And then, last but not least, the private beach! You can reach this via stairs that lead to the beach on either side of the terrace. It has associated sanitary facilities. The sandy beach has two palapas, a whirlpool and a small dock.

All in all, this villa is in one word: unique! This not only applies to the fabulous location on the beach, but also to the special architecture and the very high-quality finish. We therefore cordially invite you to see all this beauty with your own eyes.
