Schottegatweg East is about a 15-minute drive from Hato. This road runs through three different districts, called: Roj Catochi, Great Davelaar and Zeelandia. With less than a 10-minute drive to the city center, this road can be described as a very central one. This is reflected in the many commercial activities that are presented here. Schottegatweg East is also close to several schools, shopping centers, public transport and many other facilities.
